CARTA to Host Job Fair This Thursday, November 13 at Shuttle Park South

In collaboration with the American Public Transportation Association for National Transit Career Day

Chattanooga, Tennessee — The Chattanooga Area Regional Transportation Authority (CARTA) is inviting job seekers to attend its Job Fair on Thursday, November 13, from 12:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m. at Shuttle Park South, 1362 Market Street in downtown Chattanooga.

Attendees will have the opportunity to meet with CARTA hiring managers, explore current openings, and learn more about career opportunities that help keep Chattanooga moving. CARTA is currently hiring for several key positions, including:

- Bus Operators
- Mechanics
- Operations Supervisors
- Call Center Representatives
- And more

Parking is available in the Shuttle Park South garage, with the first hour free.

“As Chattanooga continues to grow, so does our need for dedicated team members who want to make a positive impact in their community,” said Charles Frazier, CEO of CARTA. “Every role at CARTA plays a part in connecting people to jobs, education, healthcare, and opportunity.”

CARTA is the public transit system for the Chattanooga area, providing safe, accessible, and sustainable transportation for residents and visitors. CARTA operates 12 fixed bus routes, four free electric downtown shuttles, Care-a-van paratransit service, for individuals with disabilities, and on-demand service through CARTA GO.

Employee Benefits Include:

- Competitive hourly pay
- State health insurance options
- Rich pension plan
- Paid vacation, holidays, and sick leave
- Opportunities for professional development and advancement
- A meaningful career serving the Chattanooga community

“We’re looking for people who want more than just a job—they want a purpose,” said Jeanine McNulty, Director of Human Resources at CARTA. “Public transit is about connecting people to opportunity, and our employees make that possible every single day. Whether you’re starting your career or bringing years of experience, CARTA offers a supportive team environment, excellent benefits, and the chance to make a real difference in the Chattanooga community.”

This event celebrates National Transit Career Day with the American Public Transportation Association (APTA), a nationwide effort to highlight rewarding careers in public transportation.
